The declaration was greeted with loud cheers.

T. T. Oliver, a Western Union telegraph operator at the Bourbon stock-yards at Louisville, was arrested Friday on the charge of forgery. At the pre-liminary examination it was shown that, on the twenty-ninth of February last, C. W. Cash, of Garrett county, applied to Oliver to have him inquire of he selling price of cattle in East Liberty, Pennsylvania, and Covington, Ken-tucky. Oliver rattled his instrument and soon gave Cash a message, saying the market was overstocked at both places, and that he had better sell in Louisville. This Mr. Cash did, and he alleggs that he lost one thousand one hundred dollars. Last week Cash learned from parties there that they had sent no dispatch, and the one given him by Cliver was forged to procure its price, two dollars and seventy cents.
